LABOR TROUBLES.

Eastern Cotton Manufacturers Will Reduce Wages.

THEIR ACTIONS A SURPRISE.

The Cut-Down Will Occur in October, and the Amount Will Probably Be Ten Per Cent—No Solution to the Lake Erie and Western Strike—Other Labor Reading.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 3.—The Cotton Manufacturers' association held a meeting yesterday afternoon and voted by an almost unanimous vote to reduce the wages of operatives. The amount of reduction is not yet known, but it will probably be fixed at 10 per cent. This action was taken because of the continued depression in the cloth trade. The matter was referred by the manufacturers to the executive committee, which will report a schedule of prices as soon as possible. The cut in wages will probably begin Oct. 5.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the manufacturers issued an official explanation of their action, in which they say that they cannot continue to manufacture goods on the present basis of cost, in view of the depressed condition of the market. At the meeting, a motion for curtailment was lost by a vote of 19 to 8.

The action of the manufacturers was a surprise to the operatives. Secretary Howard, of the Mule Spinners' association, says: "The report of the action of the manufacturers came to me like a thunderbolt. From the daily reports of the market the country has been led to believe that prices were firmer, and the outlook for trade seemed better. Fall River should not have been the first to reduce. This action will be followed everywhere by other manufacturers, and the result will be a lessening of the price paid for goods. A reduction of wages never yet helped a declining market, and in my opinion will not do it at this time. Fall River spinners are receiving less than spinners in other places. While Rhode Island and Connecticut can bear the depression I don't see why the mills here cannot. I know the members of our union would not object to a month's vacation to curtail production, but I firmly believe they will resist this reduction so far as it lies in their power."

The Railroad Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 3.—The Lake Erie and Western strike has been renewed. On the Lafayette division traffic again is at a standstill. A few trains have been tied up on the Peru division, but the majority of the freight trains are running. The Sandusky division is as yet unaffected. The men stopped work yesterday because the new schedule was not satisfactory to them.

Other wounds were also found, an indication that Belanger was felled to the floor and beaten in a merciless manner afterward. The theory is that Belanger went into his store about midnight and while in the act of striking a light was pounced upon by someone in hiding and killed before he could make an outcry. The police have no clew to the murderer.

GIGANTIC TAKING.

A Company to Enter from the Lakes to Cincinnati.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 3.—It has just been learned that a company has been formed and incorporated, and the papers filed in the secretary of the state's office, to bring water from Lake Erie to a great many Ohio cities.

The great objective point is Cincinnati, but as many of the smaller cities on the way as can be taken in conveniently on the line will be supplied. The line will pass through Erie, Seneca, Crawford, Marion, Delaware and Franklin counties, and from here probably down the Scioto and Ohio river courses. The papers are being held from publication in the secretary of state's office.

This is doubtless the same scheme that Charles W. French, of Mansfield, is fathoming. The initial company has a $10,000 capital. When it has been demonstrated that the new plan is feasible and profitable, the towns will be asked to contribute and a $25,000,000 company formed.

All along the line of pipe will be stationed mammoth pumping engines for the purpose of raising the water to that point.

After the watershed is reached, however, there will be no necessity for pumps, as gravity will rush the water to its destination without further trouble.

The pipe to be used is what is known as welded steel pipe four feet in diameter which will bear a pressure of 3,000 pounds to the inch. A number of these pipes will be laid side by side, the number depending on the amount of water to be furnished for each city.

When the success of the scheme is finally realized, a number of these pipes will be laid all over the state of Ohio, thus furnishing lake water to many of the cities of the state.

MERCHANT MURDERED.

The Person Who Committed the Crime at Large and Unknown.

LOWELL, Mass., Sept. 3.—The police are satisfied that Joseph Belanger, the dry goods merchant, found dead in his store Tuesday night, was murdered. Another examination of the body was made by physicians, and the theory of suicide previously given out was set aside. The head had been almost severed from the body. It is thought to have been done by a blow from an ax or butcher's cleaver.

Other wounds were also found, an indication that Belanger was felled to the floor and beaten in a merciless manner afterward. The theory is that Belanger went into his store about midnight and while in the act of striking a light was pounced upon by someone in hiding and killed before he could make an outcry. The police have no clew to the murderer.

NOVEL BATTLE.

An Ontario Village at War with a Railroad.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE, N. Y., Sept. 3.—The usually quiet village of Clifton, Ont., was treated to a novel battle between the town authorities and the Michigan Central railroad on Monday. There has been ill-feeling between the town and the railroad, and the latter refused the town the privilege of laying a water main under its tracks.

The town put a force of laborers at work excavating, and the railroad put another gang at work dumping gravel into the excavation. Finally the town authorities ordered out the fire companies. The waterworks pump was started and the nozzles of a number of lines of hose were turned on the railroad men. Things were lively for a time, but the railroad gang was finally vanquished.

CHARGES AGAINST A CONSUL.

Hebews Induced to Go to Brazil Under False Promises.

N. NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The steamship Alliance arrived yesterday from Brazil with forty-two Hebrews on board, who state that they were induced by the Brazilian consul in this city four months ago to go to Marahano, Brazil, where easy work and good pay were promised them. The highest wages they could get when they arrived was seventeen cents a day, and they were employed in felling trees and clearing timber land.

When they found they could not make a living they applied to the American consul in the town of St. Louis, near where the men were employed. He secured passage for them on the Alliance. The Hebrews claim they are all American citizens. Their case is being investigated at the large office.

Took the Money and a Woman.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 3.—Victor D. L. Mudge, a rising young criminal lawyer of this city, arrived from Jacksonville, Fla., about six months ago. He became very popular from the outset and made many friends in Norfolk. Last Tuesday evening he left with a woman for parts unknown. It has since transpired that Mudge got away with funds belonging to several organizations and left many bills unpaid. He has proved to be a bigamist, having a wife in Jacksonville and one in New Orleans. Mudge's remunerative amounts to about $5,000. His doings have caused a great sensation, as he moved in the best society of the city.

Everything Tied Up.

PERU, Ind., Sept. 3.—The striking brakemen of the Lake Erie and Western refuse to accept the new schedule of wages prepared by General Manager Bradbury. They went out again yesterday and everything is tied up here, no freight trains having left since Monday. The men are quiet.

Head Severed from His Body.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 3.—Richard Nash, of Philadelphia, engineer on the fast Reading express, while on the lookout yesterday, was struck by some obstruction near Orefield station, and his head was severed from the body. He hung out of the cab window some minutes before the fireman discovered his mangled remains.

AUGUST WEATHER.

What Its Effects Were on The Crops.

REPORTS SENT TO WASHINGTON.

It Was Warmer Than Usual on the Atlantic Coast, in the Lower Lake Region, Michigan, and in All States on the Pacific Coast, but It Was Cooler Than the Average Throughout the Central Valleys.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The weather crop bulletin of the weather for the month of August says the month was warmer than usual on the Atlantic coast, in the lower lake region, Michigan, and in all states on the Pacific coast, but it was cooler than the average throughout the central valleys. The excess amounted to about 2 degrees per day in southern New England and southeast New York, and it ranged from 2 degrees to 4 degrees per day on the Pacific coast.

In the west portion of the cotton region and thence northward to Iowa the deficiency in temperature amounted to about 2 degrees per day. Frosts occurred in the extreme northwest at about the usual time, near the 20th, but the wheat crop was so well advanced that only very slight damage occurred in the extreme northern portions of Minnesota, North Dakota. Frost reached the northern boundary of Iowa, but reports generally indicate that no material injury resulted to the corn crop.

Preceding the occurrence of these frosts, warnings were sent by this service to cranberry and tobacco regions of Wisconsin, which enabled the farmers to take the usual precautions to prevent injury to crops. Reports indicate that the frosts were quite severe in the exposed localities in this region, and that the cranberry crop has been injured, although doubtless much benefit must have resulted from the frost warnings, which enabled the growers to flood the marshes.

During the month of August the rainfall has been greater than usual in the interior of New England and the middle Atlantic states and from Virginia southward over South Carolina, the heaviest rains occurring in the last named state, where the total precipitation ranged from six to eleven inches. The rainfall was also in excess from the lake region westward to the Pacific coast, along the northern boundary of the United States, and in the states of the central Mississippi valley. Portions of Texas and Colorado also report areas of excessive rain. Greater portion of the region the rainfall was much less than usual, and on the east gulf coast and in southern Louisiana the deficiency in the monthly rainfall ranged from four to six inches.

The corn crop is late and will probably require about two weeks more favorable weather to place it beyond injury from frosts. Of course this does not apply to the condition of the crop in southern Kansas and thence eastward to Tennessee and Kentucky, where at this date the crop is well advanced.

Reports from the cotton region indicate that unfavorable weather has resulted in permanent injury to crops in some sections, especially in Alabama, where shedding will materially reduce the yield, while in Texas the yield may remain the same as last year, owing to the increased acreage.

POPULATION STATISTICS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The census bureau yesterday issued a bulletin giving the population of Indiana in detail, by counties, cities, wards of cities, towns and townships, taken as of June 1, 1890. The population of the state is 2,192,404, an increase of 214,103, or 10.82 per cent over that of 1880, when it was 1,978,301. Of the ninety-two counties in the state, twenty-five show decreases, but in only four of these are the decreases more than 10 per cent. In 1880 there were twenty-seven cities in the state having a population of 4,000 or more, the aggregate population of which was 327,248.

In 1890 the number of cities having a population was thirty-seven, with an aggregate population of 507,133. This shows an increase in population in cities of this size of 129,885, or 54.97 per cent. The most considerable increases in urban population in number are found in Indianapolis and Evansville. Indianapolis shows an increase of 30,380, or 40.48 per cent, while Evansville shows an increase of 21,476, or 73.35 per cent. Fort Wayne and South Bend also show large proportionate increase. The largest percentages of increases are found in Hammond, Marion, Anderson, Muncie, Frankfort and Kokomo. In only two cities are decreases shown.

Cyclone in Texas.

BRENHAM, Sept. 3.—A cyclone passed over Independence last night and much damage was done to cotton, some fields being laid completely waste. The residence and barn of Mr. Moreman were demolished, and Mr. Moreman blown twenty feet. Lightning struck the house of Mrs. Rankin, knocking the inmates senseless.

Explosion on a Car.

WINSLOW, Ark., Sept. 3.—Last night while a train was running at full speed near Denison station a car of powder blew up instantly, killing E. W. White, a brakeman, and August Breckman, a stockman, in charge of a car of household goods. The powder car and the adjoining car were blown to pieces.

Registered Mail Stolen.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Sept. 2.—The Long Branch postoffice was entered by thieves during the noon hour yesterday, and the safe rifled of eighteen registered packages and about 1,000 stamps. There is no clue to the thieves.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Nine Men Have Close Calls at Grand Island, Neb.

OMAHA, Sept. 3.—During a severe rainstorm at Grand Island, where the state Grand Army and Sons of Veterans' reunion is being held, a lightning bolt struck the camp. Two lieutenants and four sergeants of cavalry, Troop K, were seated in the first sergeant's tents. The lightning struck the tent pole, scattering the splinters in all directions. Nine men were struck. When the alarm was given the two lieutenants and four sergeants were found lying flat in the tent with their heads buried in the debris. The guards were found lying on the ground.

THE APPELLATE JUDGESHIP.

Figures that are Not Encouraging to the Democratic Aspirants.

A special from Frankfort says: "A number of resident voters in Judge Holt's Appellate district have been greatly exercised over the face of the returns at the past election, which, in the thirty-eight counties composing the district, show the Democratic vote to be 32,900 and the Republican vote, 34,691, or a Republican majority of 1,784. As Judge Van Young states it, however, this may be overcome by the disaffected Democrats who voted for Erwin and who he thinks will return to the Democratic fold at the next election. Erwin, in the district, received 4,502 votes, and if two thirds were Democrats, as Judge Young believes, the Democrats will have a majority in the district of 1,200 or more, not counting the stay-at-homes."

Besides Judge Holt, who is a candidate for re-election to the Appellate bench Judge A. E. Cole, Judge E. B. Wilhoit and Judge W. M. Beckner are also candidates for the place."

The writer of the above special forgets that under the new Constitution the next Legislature is required to redistribute the State. Under this re-apportionment there will be not less than five districts, and may be seven, in the State. This district will, almost necessarily, be considerably altered. It can hardly be left as large as it is at present. It will be time enough to figure on the political complexion of the district after its geographical bounds have been settled.

Decca's Coming Concert.

The singing of Miss Decca is really phenomenal and must be heard to be fully appreciated, for language is inadequate to describe the purity, pathos and wonderful carrying power of her voice. She is a veritable "American nightingale," and the pure flute quality of her tones makes it impossible to distinguish the voice from the instrument in the obligato numbers. Indeed, Miss Decca sings one of her great arias with the accompaniment of two flutes, a feat that is most astonishing as well as highly artistic, and rarely attempted by any great singer.

Miss Decca's voice is a soprano of extraordinary range, reaching high F. To comprehend this statement, one has only to remember that in congregational singing the music never goes higher than F, which is a note very few people can reach. But imagine a singer who can ascend the scale with perfect ease to an octave higher than this!

The delegates to the great Pan-American Congress at Washington were amazed at the phenomenal range and sweetness of Miss Decca's singing, and nothing short of seven encores would satisfy them.

Real Estate Transfers.

The Limestone Real Estate and Loan Company to Amanda B. Edgington, lot No. 9 in Hall's addition to Chester; consideration, $400.

W. B. Mathews and wife to Charles C. Dobyns, grantors' undivided half interest in house and lot on north side of Second street, just east of Limestone Creek bridge; consideration $1 and other property.

C. C. Dobyns and wife to W. B. Mathews, grantors' undivided half interest in a lot adjoining the above and extending from the road (leading west from Bank street) to low water mark; consideration, $1 and other property.

Constitutional Convention.

Every member of the Constitutional convention was present when that body reassembled yesterday at noon, at Frankfort. It was called to order by President Clay. Clerk Poore reported the vote on the adoption of the new Constitution. The official majority was shown to be 139,415. The announcement was greeted with applause.

President Clay created somewhat of a sensation by saying in his opening address that it was the duty of the Constitutional convention to make Railroad Commissioners elective by the people at once. This is the only change in the instrument that he advocates.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

A Minister's Opinion.

Mr. Jacob Connor, a German Baptist minister at Royer's Ford, Montgomery County, Pa., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy for diarrhoea, colic and cramp in the stomach. I have never used any medicine with better or more satisfactory results. I consider it one of the best ever used in our family. For sale by Power & Reynolds."

Indignation at Middlesborough.
Says the Daily News, of Middlesborough, concerning the recent sensation at that place: "The rumor circulated Wednesday evening that Johnson and his gang were acting as deputies filled this city with anger and indignation. There is no disposition here on the part of the citizens or police force to antagonize, in any manner whatever, the county authorities. Indeed, it is the general desire that the county and city authorities shall work together in ridding this section of the country of certain characters who are law-breakers by nature and whose presence is productive of nothing but disorder and lawlessness. When the word reached this city that such men as our Chief of Police, D. E. Maples, our City Attorney J. C. Hutchinson, Mr. Pratt, Mr. J. Lewis Patton and others had been indicted, it made every man think that he himself might be among the indicted ones also. Amazement and indignation was upon the face of every one, and how such men could have been indicted is still a mystery."

Very Predominant.

The Frankfort Capital says: "There is a colored man in this city who, like many of his race, is addicted to the use of large words. On one of the hottest days of last week he was asked what he thought of the weather.

"It is very predominant, sah, very predominant."

"And it was, too; in point of fact nothing was more predominant unless it was the cussin' by the ungodly which it produced. It was a bad, bad week for the human family, but was said to be good for the crops."

Mr. W. B. Carpenter, wife and daughter, of Cincinnati, came up yesterday to attend the Pogue-Malby nuptials.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

ORANGEBURG.

Some of the farmers have commenced cutting tobacco.

Our school commenced here Monday with Wm. Cook of Millwood, as teacher.

Mrs. Hughes, mother of Allen Hughes, died one day last week, and was buried at Mt. Olivet church. She was 88 years old.

They have commenced a series of meetings at the Christian Church at this place, and have had three additions up to this time.

Mrs. Annie Ross and little daughter were the pleasant guests of the family of R. H. Pollitt, of Limestone street, Maysville, last Saturday.

Charles Farrow's grocery store, better known as "The Traveller's Hope," was burned to the ground Sunday night between eleven and twelve o'clock. It is supposed it was the work of an incendiary. There was nothing saved. He had insurance on it.

JERSEY RIDGE.

The Christian Sunday school on Lawrence creek has closed.

Mr. Wm. Marsh has in process of erection a large tobacco barn.

Mrs. Katharine Smith, of Dover, visited Miss Katharine Merrill last week.

Mr. N. B. Marsh, of Cincinnati, visited his sister, Mrs. N. H. Richardson, last week.

Tobacco cutting has begun in earnest now. The crop on the Ridge is up with the average.

The ice cream supper given by the S. of T. Saturday night was a success, although the night was rather cool for eating ice cream. Prof. Rickert's string band furnished excellent music for the occasion, which was enjoyed by all.

SHANNON.

Mrs. Annie D. Wilson and her accomplished niece, Miss Mamie Scott, of Maysville, have returned from Atlanta City and are most welcome additions to society at "The Cedars."

Shannon cemetery under the care of the new sexton is as pretty as Woodland Park at Lexington.

Handsome and massive monuments have lately been erected to the memories of some of our best citizens.

The "Bracken Baptist" is little but it's loud, it's small, it's plucky. Listen to the bold editor, Parson Keys, reduces to a pulp, the 240-pound Goliath of theological palavas. In his assochion notes: "Bro. Moody, who crushed Sweeney, heart, soul and doctrine, was present, longing for another opportunity to destroy the sandy foundations of Campbellism." Elder Lucas will have to burnish up his armor of Sylva, Hebrew and Greek, his classic and belle-lettres, poetic and oratoric stores to fit the David with a score of seals dangling from his war belt.

During a flying call at the ancient "Lick" found the merchants Jackson & Wheeler shelving their full supplies. Flopper building a new coal bin, Arthur painting his repailed store, the plastering of the new church nearly finished, Dr. Graves lamenting the loss of a fine sheep—an involuntary contribution to the larder of some unknown friend; W. A. Butcheson and I. M. Maxson reading Clubmate Enquirer at George Myall's, Dr. Mitchell in town with a sample of his second crop of strawberries—large as pigeon eggs; John Caldwell delivering his crop of tobacco to Squire Raymond at six dollars all 'round, and Burgess Taylor taking out policies on the lives of the villagers. Judge Worthington's court was not in session.

Dr. Anderson preached the closing sermon of his four year's pastorate at Shannon church Sunday last. Text—3 chapter Ephesians, 14 and 15 verses. It was a discourse of great variety, showing that a valuable pastor has lost nothing in years. At the close of the same, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the congregation giving the parting hand to the retiring pastor. Much feeling was manifested. The grand old man thinks one is not far away from heaven who tries to make any body happy. The people always love a man who really loves them. Among the visitors to this farewell occasion were Miss Mary V. Dobyns and the Misses King, of Louisville, Miss. North, of Tennessee, Mrs. Wood and Hill, of Oliver, Miss. Millie Rees, of Shannon, and Mrs. Dr. Atken, of Flemingsburg.

Center Shots.

Sometimes there is a good deal of pride in telling how big a sinner you used to be.—Rain's Horn.

"You press the button, I'll do the rest," said the tramp to the operator as he laid down in the depot.—Columbus Post.

You can bet your last cent on the little girl who takes care of the chickens. She is a shooer thing.—Elmira Gazette.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

A Reminiscence.
Says the Daily News, of Middlesborough, concerning the recent sensation at that place: "The rumor circulated Wednesday evening that Johnson and his gang were acting as deputies filled this city with anger and indignation. There is no disposition here on the part of the citizens or police force to antagonize, in any manner whatever, the county authorities. Indeed, it is the general desire that the county and city authorities shall work together in ridding this section of the country of certain characters who are law-breakers by nature and whose presence is productive of nothing but disorder and lawlessness. When the word reached this city that such men as our Chief of Police, D. E. Maples, our City Attorney J. C. Hutchinson, Mr. Pratt, Mr. J. Lewis Patton and others had been indicted, it made every man think that he himself might be among the indicted ones also. Amazement and indignation was upon the face of every one, and how such men could have been indicted is still a mystery."

A graduate of Transylvania University at Lexington, at a time when that institution had a reputation second to none in the country, he reflected honor on that school of learning all through his life. Although prepared for the law, and by nature so constituted that doubtless he would have made a brilliant attorney, yet he chose the calling of a merchant, and a more honorable one never lived. Mr. Taylor was a man of very retiring nature, fond of home and family; and one that never sought to make any exhibition of his talents or learning; yet he possessed both of a high order, and would have made his mark in almost any walk in life, particularly as an actor or either comedy or tragedy, had he seen fit to adopt the stage as his profession.

As death ever claims a shilling mark, so it made no exception for him. If this man, so eminent for his earthly wisdom, what shall we say of that wisdom which prompted him while in health and strength to make provision for the life that never ends, and while so many esteeming themselves wise, treat with contempt?

Here was a man who, with all his varied attainments, took time to make his peace with his Creator while yet in health, and before his body became ready to meet the judgment seat with fear. Truly, surely he abided that which cometh to all other knowledge, which after all is the most consummate. He died at peace with all men, and the last trump shall awaken him doubtless to a great immortality.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR.

A Beautiful Wedding at the Central Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

The Marriage of Mr. Henry E. Pogue and Miss Anna Belle Maltby.

The Central Presbyterian Church was not near large enough to accommodate the happy throng that assembled last evening at 7 o'clock to witness the Pogue-Maltby nuptials.

When the hour for the ceremony arrived, it was, indeed, a beautiful scene that presented itself to one's gaze. In the pulpit stood the officiating minister, Rev. B. W. Mebane, while at his left was a wee toddler, Bard Prather, in fancy costume, with bow and arrow drawn, representing the mischievous little Cupid. Behind them a profusion of plants, flowers and shrubs arose in an artistic arrangement, mellow-tinted stand-lamps shedding their light on the scene. Other plants and evergreens almost hid the organ alcove from view. The ushers—Messrs. Will C. Wood, H. Lloyd Watson, J. B. Durrett and J. Ed. Parker—had positions on the pulpit platform, two on either side of the minister, forming a semi-circle. Immediately in front of the altar stood the fair bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, while at their right was the groom and at the left the maid of honor, Miss Nannie Carpenter, of Cincinnati, a cousin of the bride.

In entering, little Bard Prather led the way, followed by two of the ushers. Then came the maid of honor, followed by the bride and her brother. As they approached the altar, the groom, accompanied by Mr. Will C. Wood, advanced from the organ alcove. Then came the remaining usher down the main aisle. Miss Anna Shackleford presided at the organ.

The ceremony was an elaborate and very beautiful one, consisting principally of the Episcopal service, the groom and bride repeating in turn the nuptial vows, sealing their troth with the ring and then kneeling and receiving the pastoral blessing.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the groom's new home in the West End, where an elegant reception was held. The lawn was brilliantly lighted with fancy colored lanterns and the parlors were beautifully decorated. Only intimate friends and relatives were present at the reception.

The groom is a son of the late Henry E. Pogue. His bride is a daughter of Mrs. Emma Maltby and niece of Judge W. P. Coons, both of Maysville, are in the city. Captain Collier is well known and very popular, not only in this city, but all along the line of the Kentucky Central Railroad, having occupied the position of passenger conductor on that road for several years. Judge Coons has quite a number of relatives here, and is administrator of the estate of Augustus Robbins, deceased, father of Major J. W. Robbins, deputy in the Internal Revenue Service in this city.

At last Maysville is to be treated to a performance of the far-famed play of "Cleopatra." R. D. MacLean and Marie Prescott have been secured to open the theatrical season at the opera house on Monday night next with that beautiful production. Magnificent costumes, blazing jewels, superb new and appropriate scenery, and a supporting company equal to any on the stage, ought to be a grand attraction.

Four nights of last week these two eminent stars delighted hundreds of the people of Lexington, and the many hundreds attending the fair there. Their success was great, the last night overcrowding the opera house. The people here will no doubt turn out and give them a hearty welcome.

In this connection we wish to say something in behalf of the owners of the opera house.

If there is any one institution which the community should render assistance to, it is the fire department; composed as it is of men who are always ready, at a moment's notice, to rush to the assistance of the unfortunate ones whose homes are being destroyed. The Washington Fire Company is the owner of the opera house. They are in debt and the people should turn out in force and help the company, especially when it secures such first-class entertainments.

Mrs. L. V. Davis and Miss Ida Edmonds returned from Cincinnati last night.

Misses Laura Shea and Mary Leonard left yesterday to visit relatives in Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. John Johnson, of Bedford, Ind., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Claire, of the West End.

Miss Ada Gaines and Miss Lucy Watson attended the inaugural hop at Frankfort this week.

Misses Mamie and Lollie White, of Price Hill, Cincinnati, have returned after a visit at "Camp Kenton."

Miss Gertrude Worthington, of Fern Leaf, is spending the week with Misses Bettie and Mamie Remington, of Paris.

Mrs. F. S. Pollitt left for her home at Harrodsburg, a few days since accompanied by Miss Willie Burgoyne, who will be her guest during conference.

Rev. D. D. Chapin reached home this morning, from Sewanee, Tenn. He left his son, John A. Chapin, to attend school at the University of the South at that place.

Miss Julia M. Stone, the popular teacher of art, German and French in Hayswood, arrived at the Seminary yesterday, preparatory to beginning her work next Monday.

Who would ever have thought Colonel Craddock would be guilty of telling such a big one as the above? It would be a very poor "tater" that a jay could carry off. And whoever heard of a jay digging into ground.

We won't give names now, but several Maysville couples will plight their troth at the hymeneal altar this fall. When looking for wedding presents you can always find something very elegant in Ballenger's stock of jewelry and solid silver ware.

Now that the elections and fair, racing, &c., are over, and the wheat and tobacco is being handled generally, Frank Owens Hardware Co. are bringing to the front for sale hunting coats (cavass and leather), bird bags, loaded shells, ammunition of all kinds, and sportsmen's wear generally. Call and equip yourself in full for the winter's sport. Prices will suit the purchaser.

The Georgetown Gazette says: "James Bell, of Jackson township, went up the road to the Dayton Asylum last week. Bell got off on the matrimonial question, and then got better and married, but when his wife presented him with a pair of twins he again went crazy as a bedbug. He has been subject to these spells ever since, although his wife has ceased to sound the twin alarm bell. This makes his fourth trip to the asylum."

The city of Maysville will be within twenty days the best known city in America. The recent fuel gas invention will create more excitement throughout the country than all the oil and gas wells put together. Frank Owens Hardware Company have just received, clean and fresh, their vast stock of guns, imported direct from foreign makers, breech-loaders and muzzle-loading; also American makes, all of which they will sell very low.

HON. GARRETT S. WALL, of Maysville, having just returned with his mother from visit to Chicago, where they have large property interests, is in this city, where, as administrator of the Buckner estate, he has much business, as the larger portion of the property belonging to the estate lies in this county. Judge Wall is very prominently mentioned as a probable candidate for Congress in his district, to succeed Hon. Thomas H. Paynter.—Covington Post, September 2.

MESSRS. CHARLES McNAMARA and Joseph Kinney, of this city, left yesterday for Flemingsburg, where they will engage in the merchant tailoring business. They are young men of good habits, and we cheerfully recommend them to the good people of Flemingsburg and the surrounding country. They understand their business thoroughly, and will be found strictly honest in their dealings. Both have been employed for a long time at the old reliable Red Corner Clothing House.

Captain George Collier, proprietor of the Central Hotel, and Hon. W. P. Coons, both of Maysville, are in the city. Captain Collier is well known and very popular, not only in this city, but all along the line of the Kentucky Central Railroad, having occupied the position of passenger conductor on that road for several years. Judge Coons has quite a number of relatives here, and is administrator of the estate of Augustus Robbins, deceased, father of Major J. W. Robbins, deputy in the Internal Revenue Service in this city.

—Covington Post, September 2nd.

STARVING PEASANTS

Horrible Story Comes from St. Petersburg.

IN THE VALLE YOF THE VOLGA

People Feeding on the Grass of the Fields and Leaves of the Forest—The Government Unable to Render Aid. Minister Lincoln's Daughter Married. Storms Over the British Isles—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—From St. Petersburg comes more hideous news of the sufferings of the starving peasantry. In the valley of the Volga emaciated wretches can be seen feeding, like beasts, on the grass of the fields, while others resort to the forests and chew leaves to assuage the pangs of hunger.

When a boat is seen on the river, the people of whole villages line the banks, earnestly pleading for assistance. The government is acting with all the vigor possible, but the absolute dearth of supplies makes it difficult to send relief to many places where it is badly needed. Even the army feels the pinch, and at remote posts rations have been reduced from a third to a half.

The Holy Coat as an Attraction.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—A Treves dispatch says that the receipts from the pilgrims who have come to view the holy coat exceed expectations. While a large share of the money is to be retained for the repairing of the cathedral, the greater share will probably be handed over to the pope. There are two offertory boxes in the cathedral on the part of the holy see, and sometimes as much as 10,000 marks are dropped into them during the day.

Minister Lincoln's Daughter Married.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Miss Mary Lincoln, daughter of the American minister to England, Mr. Robert T. Lincoln, was Wednesday afternoon married to Mr. Charles Isham, a wealthy young lawyer of New York. The marriage took place at the Brompton parish church, Canon Farrar officiating. Only the family and intimate friends were present.

Floods in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3.—The River Barrow has overflowed, destroying crops and other property. The Daily Express says the Barrow flood is due to obstruction on the part of the nationalists in parliament, which caused Mr. Balfour to withdraw the bill for the improvement of the river.

Will Cut Down the Crops About One Half.

EDINBURGH, Sept. 3.—Advices received from various parts of the country indicate that fully half the crops of Scotland have been destroyed by storms. Harvest is at a standstill.

Can't Cash Balmaceda's Draft.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The courts have granted an injunction on the City bank against paying a draft for $75,000 drawn by Balmaceda in favor of his European agents.

Says Germany Won't Fight.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Times Berlin dispatch says the German press declare that Germany must be alert, but will never begin a war, however provoked.

Riot in China.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 3.—In a riot at Lchang on Tuesday, all the mission and foreign property was burned, but no one fatally injured.

Royal Forests to Be Sold.

BERLIN, Sept. 3.—The government will sell the royal forest timber cheap to the poor for fuel.

UP LIKE A ROCKET.

A Man Carried a Hundred Feet High and Then Dropped to Death.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Sept. 3.—The 1,000 persons in attendance at the Oswego fair yesterday witnessed a horrible accident. Professor John J. Frisbie, of this city, was advertised to make a balloon ascension and a parachute jump, and much interest was felt in it from the fact of his residence here. When everything was in readiness and Professor Frisbie was about to take his seat on the trapeze, the big balloon in some manner got away from those holding the ropes.

It shot upward like a rocket, and the spectators were horrified to see a man who had been holding the ropes, swept off the ground and hang dangling between the parachute and the ground. When up about 100 feet he attempted to drop, but his feet caught in the ropes and turned him over, and he plunged headlong to the ground. He struck on his head and was instantly killed. His name was John R. Woods, and he came to see the fair from Union Square, this county. He was thirty-two years old. The balloon was recovered.

Carriage Struck by a Train.

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Sept. 3.—A carriage containing four persons was struck by a train here at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. Miss Travis, twenty years of age, of Amawalk, was killed, while her brother George had both legs so badly crushed that amputation was necessary and it is feared that he cannot recover. The other two occupants of the carriage escaped with slight injuries.

Three Hotels Burned.

WILLOWS, Cal., Sept. 3.—The fire last night, caused by an explosion of a lamp, destroyed Wilfows hotel, Union hotel, the Crawford House, Hechmire & Company's general merchandise store, the express and telegraph offices and a number of other places. Loss $150,000; partially insured.

Postoffice Safe Burglarized.

GRANITE FALLS, Minn., Sept. 3.—The postoffice safe at this place was blown open last night and about $1,000 in money and stamps taken. There is no clew.

Quarrel Ends in Death.

BUFFALO, Sept. 3.—John Guenther quarreled with Mike Boharjicak on Broadway last night and fatally shot him. Guenther was arrested.

TO BRAZIL BY WIRE.
Direct Communication with This Country
Has Been Established.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—A new submarine cable line, which for the first time provides direct telegraphic communication between Brazil and the United States, was formally, but quietly and unostentatiously, opened for business Tuesday. The opening of the new line afforded much satisfaction to the shippers and merchants whose business brings them into close commercial relations with Brazil and other countries on the east coast of South America. There was one regret expressed. That was that the new line had been created solely by the enterprise of French capitalists.

The new cable will make it easier to get news of any scrimmage or revolution or declaration of war, which are always likely to happen in South American countries. The new cable starts at Hayti, goes from Hayti to San Domingo, links together the islands of San Domingo and Martinique, and from Martinique skips over to French Guinea and from thence jumps to the adjoining country, Brazil, the terminal point of the cable there being the town of Vizew. The new cable is entirely controlled by French capitalists. It works in connection with the International Ocean Telegraph company and the Western Union company. Connection with the United States is had by the already existing cable to Havana and the Cuban submarine cable between Cuba and Hayti.

Sealing Schooners Return.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 3.—Four more sealing schooners have returned to port. They are the Charlotte C, Annie C. Moore, Borealis and Geneva. The Cox brought 1,513 skins, Geneva 490, Annie C. Moore 1,620 and Borealis 1,500.

The Rhea H also arrived. She brings the information that the Hamilton Lewis, Captain Alex McLean, was captured by a Russian gunboat while poaching off Copper Island in Russian waters, and also that the schooner Webster, Captain Dan McLean, had undertaken to raid one of the Russian seal islands and that the poachers were caught. McLean was shot in the leg, but the rest of the crew managed to regain the schooner and escape, leaving McLean a prisoner.

Hawaii Wants a Change.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—A Honolulu letter says the new Hawaiian queen becomes daily more unpopular with the natives and Americans, as she takes no pains to conceal her favoritism for the English and ignores the sufferings of the natives at the hands of the big sugar corporations. The republican feeling in the island is spreading rapidly. The platform of the recently formed labor party demands a new constitution, a republican form of government and hints at annexation to the United States. The recent census shows that over half the white population has left the island in the last six years, having been crowded out by Asiatic coolies, imported by the sugar planters, and the natives are rapidly dying off.

Met a Horrible Death.

CHARDON, O., Sept. 2.—Five miles from this city, yesterday, George Rice, with a steam engine and thresher, was crossing the Grand river. The bridge gave way, and engine, thresher and man were precipitated to the water below. He met death in a horrible manner. His head and shoulders were crowded under the water, and the escaping steam so scalded the rest of his body that the flesh fell from his bones.

Put Two Bullets in His Head.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 3.—Robert Wieland committed suicide yesterday in a boarding house by putting two bullets in his head. Wieland is about fifty years of age. He is said to be the proprietor of a big brewery in San Francisco. He has been on a spree since he came here four weeks ago and has spent money lavishly.

Admitted to Ball.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Henry Cassin, the bell boy, who was convicted and sentenced six months ago to nine years imprisonment for the larceny of $18,000 from the safe of the Hotel Vendome was yesterday admitted to bail pending an appeal of his case. Thomas Cunningham, a wealthy friend, went security for the boy's appearance in the sum of $5,000. The money stolen was the property of a bookkeeper named Carlin.

Sixteen Blocks Burned.

THE DALLES, Or., Sept. 3.—A disastrous fire, fanned by a high wind, visited this place yesterday. Sixteen blocks in the center of the town were entirely destroyed. The fire broke out at 1 o'clock in the afternoon in Skibb's restaurant and spread with great rapidity. The loss is estimated from $750,000 to $1,000,000. The blow to the town is a very heavy one.

Kingston Won.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—The special race between Kingston, Marion C and Verge d'Or, was won by Kingston. The others finished as named. The distance was one and one-eighth miles, and the time 1:54.

Found Murdered.

LOWELL, Mass., Sept. 3.—David Ballenger was found dead in his dry goods store with his throat cut. There is no clew to the murderer.

Foundry Burned.

ALLEGTON, Pa., Sept. 3.—The foundry facings mill owned by William Weightman, of Philadelphia, and occupied by L. H. Kinney, was burned this morning. The total loss is $14,000, uninsured.

Nettleton at Home.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Assistant Secretary Nettleton has returned to Washington from New York, where he has been engaged on immigration affairs. Secretary Tracy has returned from New York.

Minister Smith Sails.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Charles Emory Smith, United States minister to Russia, sailed for Europe Wednesday on the City of New York.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 3.

A boiler exploded at slope No. 1, Pratt mines, instantly killing the engineer, Emmett Wiggins. Several others were injured, but none fatally. Wiggins was from Montgomery, Ala.
